

Lamia Ammoura

Consultant, French and European Patent Attorney. Lamia graduated in physics at Ecole Normale Supérieure of Lyon. Lamia has a PhD in Physics from the University of Paris-Saclay.

Lingue: native French speaker, fluent in English, intermediate level in Italian.

Aree di competenza:
Brevetti

Sede: Parigi

Work experience

After graduation, Lamia worked as a young researcher at Commissariat à l'Energie Atomique (CEA) of Saclay in order to prepare her PhD in Physics. Her research project focused on the quantification of the CO2 emissions in the Paris megacity. In 2015, she worked as a teacher in Physics to prepare students to competitive entrance exams to medical schools. In 2017, she joined the Jacobacci Group as a patent engineer.

Professional focus

Lamia has an extensive practice drafting and prosecuting French, PCT and European patent applications relating to engineering subject-matter.

Areas of expertise

Lamia mainly works on engineering matters and has particular expertise in the fields of physics, optics, opto-electronics, laser technology, electronics, mechanics, fluid dynamics, environmental sciences.

Lamia Ammoura
J&P Jacobacci & Partners
www.jacobacci.com
Email: lammoura@jacobacci.com
Tel: +33 (0)1 44 70 60 00 | +33 (0)1 53 04 64 64